

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 751

By Hardaway

A RESOLUTION to urge the Department of Safety and Homeland Security to conduct a feasibility study of an online database of persons who have proof of financial responsibility or alternate methods for determining proof of financial responsibility compliance.

WHEREAS, drivers in Tennessee are required to possess proof of financial responsibility in accordance with the Tennessee Financial Responsibility Law of 1977; and

WHEREAS, law enforcement officers would be assisted in the enforcement of such law by the creation of a database of persons having automobile insurance in this state or alternate methods of determining financial responsibility compliance; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that the Department of Safety and Homeland Security is urged, within its existing resources, to conduct a feasibility study of developing an online database of Tennesseans having proof of financial responsibility or exploring alternate methods for determining Tennesseans' compliance with the financial responsibility law compiled in Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 55, Chapter 12, both of which would be accessible by law enforcement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Department of Safety and Homeland Security is requested to deliver the results of any such study, including any recommended legislation, to:

- (1) The Speakers of the House of Representatives and the Senate;
- (2) The Chairs of the Transportation Committee of the House of Representatives and the Transportation and Safety Committee of the Senate;

(3) The Chairs of the Commerce Committee of the House of Representatives and the Commerce, Labor & Agriculture Committee of the Senate; and

(4) The Chairs of the Finance, Ways and Means Committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives provide a copy of this resolution to the Commissioner of Safety and Homeland Security and the Commissioner of Revenue.
